

Provides overload and shut off protection for motor wind-down when used with hydraulic control valves that have blocked work ports in neutral. This is commonly found in valves on skid steer and tractor remotes.

- Plumb in this orientation for Clockwise rotation.
- For non-reversible applications only.

